SUMMER ROCKERS FOR THE PORCH AND INTERIOR HOME USE

When one reposes in one of these cool and comfortable Summer Rockers they will do so with a sense of satisfaction and pleasure that is afforded by the restfulness of the rockers themselves. Though they are decidedly inexpensive, they are among the most comfort-affording pieces to be had. The seats have a resiliency that is most inviting, and they are made to allow as much air possible to reach you.

Congress Heights Citizens Will Protest Against Extension of Government Hospital.

At the monthly meeting of the Congress Heights Citizens' Association last night, the question of the proposed extension of the Government Hospital for the Insane was discussed. The association has been endeavoring for a long time to prevent the extension of the grounds in that direction, as it was feared that eventually the entire suburb of Congress Heights would be swallowed up by the institution. Friendly Sons of St. Patrick to Give Concert Friday.

The Glee Club of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, which will give a concert in connection with the Barry celebration at the New Willard Friday, although in but the second year of its existence, is already known as one of the best choral male organizations in the country. This is due primarily to the great interest that Victor Herbert has taken in it from the outset.

Society Doings in and Around The National Capital

By SALLY VAWTER HARRIS.

Relieved of the tense excitement relative to the White House wedding and the horse show of last week, society folk resumed their accustomed lively pace yesterday, and the program was filled with delightful events. The same interesting status of affairs exists in the social world today, and the Austrian Ambassador will entertain his first formal dinner party since the departure of Mrs. Dumba a few weeks ago.

Prof. Axon, the brother of Mrs. Wilson, and Francis Bowers Sayre, the son-in-law of the President and Mrs. Wilson, who have been guests at the White House since early last week, have returned to their respective homes—Prof. Axon to Princeton, where he is a member of the faculty, and Mrs. Sayre to Williamstown, Mass. Mrs. Sayre still remains with her parents and her sister, Miss Margaret Wilson.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand brought an interesting company together at the embassy last night, having among their guests several diplomats who were formerly located here and who took a conspicuous part in society.

In the party were Baroness Moncheur, wife of the former Belgian Minister to Washington, and the Belgian Minister to Turkey; Mr. Godoy, who for several years was counselor of the Mexican Embassy here, and much of the time charge d'affaires, and Mrs. Godoy, who are now in Cuba; the Duke and Duchess de Richelieu, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, Mr. Walla, counselor of the Spanish Legation; the Spanish Military Attaché and Countess de Urcullu, Capt. Reginald Kann, Mr. J. Hedeman, a journalist of Paris; the French Countess de la Roche, Countess de Sauvigny, wife of the French military attaché; the French Second Secretary and Mme. de Laboulaye, Count de Harigues, French Secretary, Mr. Bergeron, French Vice Consul and Mrs. Salas, of France.

Both the home of Mrs. Richard H. Townsend, and that of Representative and Mrs. Peter Gerry were given over last night to entertainments in honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall. Mr. and Mrs. Gerry entertained at dinner in honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, asking in the company of twenty-four to meet them at dinner, the German Ambassador, the Spanish Ambassador and Senora de Riano, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, the Danish Minister, former Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Montague, Countess Glyckska, Mrs. Henry C. Corbin, and Representative and Mrs. A. Mitchell Palmer.

After the dinner the entire company and a number of additional guests were taken to Mrs. Townsend's, where in the brilliantly illuminated ballroom there was a dance until after midnight. Both the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall are fond of watching the new dance in the city, and it was for this reason Mrs. Townsend lent her ballroom for the occasion.

Pittmans Give Dinner

Senator and Mrs. Key Pittman, who have moved from Cleveland Park for the spring season and have taken Altha Hall, a charming Virginia estate on the Cherrylake pike on Potomac Heights, entertained at dinner there last night for the governor of Alaska and Mrs. Strong. Asked to meet them were Senator and Mrs. Shields, Senator and Mrs. Reed, Senator and Mrs. Oille James, the Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. Samuel J. Graham, and Mr. and Mrs. George Thatcher, of Nevada.

Mrs. A. F. Fechter and Mrs. Alexander Bentley entertained at a subscription dance at the Highlands last night, when eighty or more young people showed "The Grinning Boys" of Georgetown, played, and a Dutch supper was served in a German garden of flowers. Miss Margaret Fechter, Miss Bessie Driggs, Miss Helen McCumber, and a number of young girls who attended the dance assisted in promoting the benefit.

Mrs. Claude Swanson, who went to Philadelphia yesterday for a visit, will return to Washington today.

Mrs. James E. Martine, of New Jersey, and the members of the "Tarry-a-While" Club had luncheon yesterday at the Congressional Club.

The Counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Robert Lansing entertained a number of guests at dinner last night.

Mrs. Willard Sausbrey entertained guests at luncheon yesterday in honor of her niece, Miss Lucy Barksdale, of Wilmington, Del. Invited guests were Miss Harkadale, Miss Greta Burleson, Mrs. Alston Simpson, Miss Callie Hoke Smith, Miss Collie, Miss Walsh, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Miss Phyllis Moore, Miss Anne Moore, Miss Greble, Miss Hawkins, Miss Mary Winslow, and Miss Ethel Barksdale, of Wilmington, Del.

Miss Fuller, of Brooklyn, niece of the Secretary of Commerce, and Mrs. Redd, who has been their guest for some time, will return to her home Thursday.

John R. McLean has closed his Washington house and gone to Friendship to remain until June, when he will go to Narragansett Pier for the summer. Mr. McLean has been in the city since Sunday breakfast at Friendship, reviving a custom established by the late Mrs. McLean years ago. There will be 100 guests.

Lieut. Col. Sir John Harrington and Lady Harrington will be here next month on a visit to the latter's mother, Mrs. James McMillan. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Philip McMillan in Detroit.

Mrs. R. L. Rutter and Miss Rutter, who have been guests of Senator and Mrs. Miles Polinder at their home in N. street, will leave Washington tomorrow after a visit of several weeks, for their home at Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Rutter is the sister of Mrs. Polinder.

The Commandant of the Marines and Mrs. George Barrett entertained at dinner last night, Senator and Mrs. Weeks, Capt. and Mrs. John A. Hoogwerf, Representative and Mrs. Flood, Representative and Mrs. B. H. Smith, Representative and Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Leroy, of Richmond; Miss May Adams, Col. Lauchlin, and Capt. Knapp.

The Ladies' board of the Working Boys' Home is planning a delightful open air fête, to be held Tuesday, May 13. Among those in charge of the various attractions are: Mrs. Frederick Atkinson, Mrs. Victor Cushman, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Colton, Mrs. Harlow, Mrs. Ruggles, Mrs. Timmons, Mrs. Odell, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Walter Wilson, Miss Gladys Hinkley, Miss Margaret Symon, Mrs. Upshur Moorhead, Mrs. Cary Langhorne, Mrs. Perry Johnson, the Misses Mackay-Smith, the Misses Waring, and Mrs. Walter R. Tuckerman, president of the Board.

Mrs. William U. Hutterly entertained at a large bridge party, followed by tea, yesterday afternoon, in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Stephen Schaeffer Landis, of Pittsburgh. Assisting Mrs.

Mrs. W. W. Wotherpoon has joined Gen. Wotherpoon at the Dupont after visiting for some time at Utica.

Mrs. G. W. Brashears reached here from San Diego, Cal., on Monday, and will be at the Hotel Powhatan during her stay in the city.

Mrs. George Merrill has closed her house in K street, and has gone to New York for a short visit on her way to Stockbridge, Mass., to spend the summer.

Mrs. Louis Bennett, who has spent the season at the New Willard, has returned to her home in West Virginia, but may go abroad later.

Mr. Edward R. Welles, of New York city, is registered at the Hotel Powhatan.

Miss Martha Brower returned to Washington yesterday afternoon from Philadelphia. She stopped at Bryn Mawr.

Only Pure, Cold Air Can Keep Food Pure

STAGNANT AIR means unwholesome, tainted food; it means that germs have a chance to breed and accumulate. Circulation means that you can keep milk, cream, and butter in the same compartment with onions and fruit and they will not absorb the odor—it means smaller ice bills. Stagnant air is impossible in the
